New York City:-

Dear Mr. Wood:-

Referring to our recent conversation regarding the Clay medals, in connection with my iconography, I find that it will be some time before I can transfer to cards my material on this. Unfortunately, business will interfere with avocations.

In view of this, perhaps it would be best to reverse the process we talked of, and have your young man list for me in customary medallion descriptive form your medals, supplementing the list with research from your sources. In this connection, where possible, I should like as full identification of the designer as is feasible.

If this is agreeable to you, please let me know if your man still is available, what you think would be fair compensation, etc. I'd rather have the material and the bill for the same sent me at weekly or fortnightly periods than to have both accumulate. With thanks for your interest, I am

Sincerely yours,

William P. Hunt

Dear Mr. Hunt:

The person I had in mind is willing to work evenings on listing our Henry Clay medals. I think these can be done rather quickly. His charges would be $1.00 an hour.

Very truly yours,
